

Airport Transfer

Public transportation (20-40 words)

The distance between Caracas and Simón Bolívar International Airport (CCS) is about 19 km. Public busses run between the two every 30 minutes, and the journey will last between 1 and 1.5 hours, depending on traffic.

Taxi (20-40 words)

Licensed “Corporacion Anfitriones de Venezuela” airport taxi representatives wait for passengers just outside the baggage reclaim area. You need to purchase a ticket from the yellow assistance desks in the arrivals area. The journey should take less than an hour, depending on traffic.
